Mmusi Maimane: Prophet or Puppet? by S'thembiso Msomi

9781868427086 | Jonathan Ball Publishers | TPB | R200

On May 10, 2015, Mmusi Maimane was announced as the new leader of the Democratic Alliance, beating his opponent by a huge margin. It was an historic event because it marked the completion of the DA's transformation from a 'white' political party to one whose new leader shared similar experiences to those of the majority of voters. Thus a highly intelligent and charismatic young man was thrust onto centre stage. But who is the real Mmusi Maimane? Experienced political reporter S'Thembiso Msomi goes behind the scenes to examine how and why Maimane rose to head up the opposition. Finally, the author attempts to answer these burning questions: is Maimane his own man, and can he deliver the electorate that the DA so fervently desires?

Harry Potter and the Cursed Child by J.K. Rowling, Jack Thorne and John Tiffany

9780751565355 | Little, Brown | HB | R375

Based on an original new story by J.K. Rowling, Jack Thorne and John Tiffany, a new play by Jack Thorne, Harry Potter and the Cursed Child is the eighth story in the Harry Potter series and the first official Harry Potter story to be presented on stage. It was always difficult being Harry Potter and it isn't much easier now that he is an overworked employee of the Ministry of Magic, a husband, and father of three school-age children. While Harry grapples with a past that refuses to stay where it belongs, his youngest son Albus must struggle with the weight of a family legacy he never wanted.

Barkskins by Annie Proulx

9780007579327 | HarperCollins | TPB | R360

From Annie Proulx—the Pulitzer Prize-and National Book Award-winning author of The Shipping News and Brokeback Mountain, comes her masterwork: an epic, dazzling, violent, magnificently dramatic novel about the taking down of the world's forests. Proulx's inimitable genius is her creation of characters who are so vivid—in their greed, lust, vengefulness, or their simple compassion and hope—that we follow them with fierce attention. Annie Proulx is one of the most formidable and compelling American writers, and Barkskins is her greatest novel, a magnificent marriage of history and imagination.

End of Watch by Stephen King

9781473634015 | Hodder & Stoughton | TPB | R390

The spectacular finale to the New York Times bestselling trilogy that began with Mr. Mercedes (winner of the Edgar Award) and Finders Keepers. In End of Watch, the diabolical "Mercedes Killer" drives his enemies to suicide, and if Bill Hodges and Holly Gibney don't figure out a way to stop him, they'll be victims themselves. In End of Watch, Stephen King brings the Hodges trilogy to a sublimely terrifying conclusion, combining the detective fiction of Mr. Mercedes and Finders Keepers with the heart-pounding, supernatural suspense that has been his bestselling trademark. The result is an unnerving look at human vulnerability and chilling suspense. No one does it better than King.

July Fiction

The Fireman by Joe Hill

9780575130722 | Orion | TPB | R365

Nobody knew where the virus came from. FOX News said it had been set loose by ISIS, using spores that had been invented by the Russians in the 1980s. MSNBC said sources indicated it might've been created by engineers at Halliburton and stolen by culty Christian types fixated on the Book of Revelation. CNN reported both sides. While every TV station debated the cause, the world burnt. Pregnant school nurse, Harper Grayson, had seen lots of people burn on TV, but the first person she saw burn for real was in the playground behind the school. With the epic scope of The Passage and the emotional impact of The Road, this is one woman's story of survival at the end of the world.

Burning Angels by Bear Grylls

9781409156864 | Orion | TPB | R365

Author of Mud, Sweat And Tears and star of Man vs. Wild and The Island, Bear Grylls delivers a hair-raising, adrenaline-fuelled sequel to his Sunday Times bestselling novel, Ghost Flight. A prehistoric corpse entombed within an Arctic glacier, crying tears of blood. A jungle island overrun by rabid primates - escapees from a research laboratory's Hot Zone. A massive seaplane hidden beneath a mountain, packed with a Nazi cargo of mind-blowing evil. A penniless orphan kidnapped from an African slum, holding the key to the world's survival. Four terrifying journeys. One impossible path. Only one man to attempt it. Will Jaeger. The Hunter.

Red Dirt by E.M Reapy

9781784974633 | Head Of Zeus | TPB | R345

This is a story of the consequences of impulsive choices and of the places where they lead. A vulnerable young man is left alone by his friends in a remote wilderness; a desperate girl puts herself into the hands of violent sex traffickers; a once-privileged favourite son lets a drunken quarrel escalate to murder. An utterly compelling, readable novel that hooks from the first page and immerses us in an all-too topical nightmare. A gripping tale of loss and hope, of self-destruction and self-acceptance, from an exciting new debut author.

Bay of Sighs by Nora Roberts

9780349407845 | Little, Brown | TPB | R340

Dark magic, love and friendship: book two of the captivating Guardians Trilogy, from the international bestselling author of Stars of Fortune. A dark and powerful goddess hunts for three jewels: fallen stars that will give her endless power. To save the world, six friends have joined forces to stop her. Now, on the beautiful island of Capri, their battle continues. Mermaid Annika is proud to have been chosen for such an important quest. But now that her identity has been revealed, her time is running out. She knows that soon she must return to her people. But she also knows that she is in love with Sawyer King - the brave and loyal adventurer with secrets of his own.

The Proof by Martina Reilly

9781473636699 | Hachette Books | TPB | R305

Applegate is a small town where everyone knows each other or thought they did. But then Marcus Dillon finds himself on trial for the recent murder of Charles Hanratty - and the sole chance he has is the testimony of his childhood friend Sash. Because only she knows the truth about that night, fifteen years ago, when they broke into Hanratty's house. And then there's Lana, Sash's sister. Lana knows the difference between right and wrong. She sees things. She remembers them. Someone just needs to ask her the right questions. Applegate is a small town where not a lot happens until now.

Don't You Cry by Mary Kubica

9781848454774 | HarperCollins | TPB | R305

New York Times bestselling author of The Good Girl, Mary Kubica returns with an electrifying and addictive tale of deceit and obsession. In downtown Chicago, a young woman named Esther Vaughan disappears from her apartment without a trace. A haunting letter addressed to My Dearest is found among her possessions, leaving her friend and roommate Quinn Collins to wonder where Esther is and whether or not she's the person Quinn thought she knew. Master of suspense Mary Kubica takes readers on a taut and twisted thrill ride that builds to a stunning conclusion and shows that no matter how fast and far we run, the past always catches up with us in the end.

Let Me Tell You About a Man I Knew by Susan Fletcher

9780349007618 | Little, Brown | TPB | R340

Provence, May 1889. The hospital of Saint-Paul-de-Mausole is home to the mentally ill. Tales of the new arrival - his savagery, his paintings, his copper-red hair - are quick to find their way to the warden's wife. From her small white cottage, Jeanne Trabuc watches him - how he sets his easel amongst the trees, the irises and the fields of wheat, and paints in the heat of the day. Jeanne knows the rules; she knows not to approach the patients at Saint-Paul. But this man is, she thinks, worth talking to. So ignoring her husband's wishes, the dangers and despite the word mad, Jeanne climbs over the hospital wall. She will find that the painter will change all their lives.

Black Water Lilies by Michel Bussi

9781474601757 | Orion | TPB | R340

During the day, tourists flock to the former home of the famous artist Claude Monet and the gardens where he painted his Water Lilies. This is the story of thirteen days that begin with one murder and end with another. Jerome Morval, a man whose passion for art was matched only by his passion for women, has been found dead in the stream that runs through the gardens. In his pocket is a postcard of Monet's Water Lilies with the words: Eleven years old. Happy Birthday. Entangled in the mystery are three women: a young painting prodigy, the seductive schoolteacher and an old widow who watches over the village from a mill by the stream

9781785761836 | Bonnier | TPB | R335

Marc Dane is a MI6 field agent at home behind a computer screen, one step away from the action. But when a brutal attack on his team leaves Marc as the only survivor he's forced into the front line. However the evidence seems to point towards Marc as the perpetrator of the attack. Accused of betraying his country, he must race against time to clear his name. With nowhere to turn to for help and no one left to trust, Marc is forced to rely on the elusive Rubicon group and their operative Lucy Keyes. Ex US Army, Lucy also knows what it's like to be an outsider, and she's got the skills that Marc is sorely lacking.

The Hummingbird by Stephen P. Kiernan

9780062369550 | HarperCollins | TPB | R300

Deborah Birch is a seasoned hospice nurse whose daily work requires courage and compassion. But her skills and experience are tested in new and dramatic ways when her easygoing husband, Michael, returns from his third deployment to Iraq haunted by nightmares, anxiety, and rage. At the same time, Deborah's primary patient is Barclay Reed, a retired history professor and expert in the Pacific Theater of World War II whose career ended in academic scandal. Alone in the world, the embittered professor is dying. As Barclay begrudgingly comes to trust Deborah, he tells her stories from that long-ago war, which helps her find a way to help her husband battle his demons. The Hummingbird is a masterful story of loving commitment, service to country, and absolution through wisdom and forgiveness.

The Wheel of Osheim by Mark Lawrence

9780007531622 | HarperCollins | TPB | R360

From the international bestselling author of the Broken Empire Trilogy, this is the thrilling conclusion to the Red Queen's War. Jalan plans to return to the three w's that have been the core of his idle and debauched life: wine, women, and wagering. Fate however has other plans, larger plans. The Wheel of Osheim is turning ever faster, and it will crack the world unless it's stopped. When the end of all things looms, and there's nowhere to run, even the worst coward must find new answers. Jalan and Snorri face many dangers, from the corpse hordes of the Dead King to the many mirrors of the Lady Blue, but in the end, fast or slow, the Wheel of Osheim always pulls you back. In the end it's win or die.

Foxlowe by Eleanor Wasserberg

9780008164096 | HarperCollins | TPB | R305

A compulsive and chilling debut about a girl growing up in a cult. We were the Family, but we weren't just an ordinary family. We were a new, better kind of family. We didn't need to go to school, because we had a new, better kind of education. We shared everything. We were close to the ancient way of living and the ancient landscape. We knew the moors, and the standing stones. We celebrated the solstice in the correct way, with honey and fruit and garlands of fresh flowers. We knew the Bad and we knew how to keep it away.

A Divided Spy by Charles Cumming

9780007467525 | HarperCollins | TPB | R360

A gripping and suspenseful new spy novel. Perfect for fans of The Night Manager and Our Kind of Traitor. Thomas Kell thought he was done with spying. A former MI6 officer, he devoted his life to the Service, but it has left him with nothing but grief and a simmering anger against the Kremlin. Then Kell is offered an unexpected chance at revenge. Taking the law into his own hands, he embarks on a mission to recruit a top Russian spy who is in possession of a terrifying secret. As the mission reaches boiling point, the threat of a catastrophic terrorist attack looms over Britain. Kell is faced with an impossible choice. Loyalty to MI6 – or to his own conscience?

Fire and Sword: Throne of The Caesars by Harry Sidebottom

9780007499939 | HarperCollins | TPB | R415

Play Bigger by Al Ramadan, Dave Peterson, Christopher Lochhead, and Kevin Maney

9780349411361 | Little, Brown | TPB | R390

The how-to playbook for start-ups and established companies on how to define a new category, develop it and then dominate it over time. In today's world, it's no longer enough to create great new products; rather companies now must create whole new categories that destroy old ones. Uber created a new personal transportation category and destroyed taxis and limos. Salesforce.com created a new category of cloud-base sales automation, dethroning the old CRM industry. Airbnb, Workday, Tesla and Netflix are all winning by creating entirely new business categories that destabilise old ones. Drawing on examples from within and beyond our own practice, Play Bigger shows both entrepreneurs and established enterprises how to define, develop and rule a

In The Darkroom by Susan Faludi

9780008193508 | HarperCollins | TPB | R360

In the summer of 2004 Susan Faludi set out to investigate someone she scarcely knew, her father. The project began with a grievance, the grievance of a daughter whose parent had absconded from her life. So begins, Susan Faludi's extraordinary inquiry into the meaning of identity in the modern world and her own haunted family saga. When the feminist writer learned that her 76-year-old father - long estranged and living in Hungary - had undergone sex reassignment surgery, that investigation would turn personal and urgent. How was this new parent who claimed to be 'a complete woman now' connect to the silent, explosive and ultimately violent father that she had known, the photographer who'd built his career on the alteration of images?

Invisible Influence by Jonah Berger

9781471148040 | Simon & Schuster | TPB | R335

The New York Times bestselling author of Contagious explores the subtle, secret influences that affect the decisions we make in this fascinating and groundbreaking work. If you're like most people, you think that your choices and behaviours are driven by your individual, personal tastes, and opinions. You wear a certain jacket because you liked the way it looked. You picked a particular career because you found it interesting. The notion that our choices are driven by our own personal thoughts and opinions is patently obvious. Right? Wrong. In his surprising and compelling Invisible Influence, Jonah Berger integrates research and thinking from business, psychology, and social science to focus on the subtle, invisible influences behind our choices as individuals.
